The screenshot shows a Miro board titled "Job Application And Tracking System". The board is organized into three main columns, each with a title and a description of the task.

- Define your problem statement: This column includes a 5-minute timer and a box asking, "What problem are you trying to solve? Frame your problem as a How might we statement. This will be the focus of your brainstorm." Below this is a box titled "Key rules of brainstorming" with six rules: Encourage wild ideas, Encourage wild ideas, Go for quantity, Defer judgment, Build on others, and Encourage others to build on ideas.
- Brainstorm: This column includes a 10-minute timer and a box asking, "Write down any ideas that come to mind that address your problem statement." Below this is a box titled "Person 1" with a list of ideas.
- Group ideas: This column includes a 10-minute timer and a box asking, "Write down any ideas that come to mind that address your problem statement." Below this is a box titled "Group ideas" with a list of ideas.

The board also features a sidebar on the left with various icons and a top navigation bar with icons for collaboration and sharing.
